

What is the Onslow-Lejeune Reading Council?

The Onslow-Lejeune Reading Council (OLRC) is made up of administrators, educators, interns, parents, students, and any other people interested in promoting literacy and encouraging a lifelong love of reading. We meet periodically to discuss and learn about literacy and reading.

Onslow-Lejeune Reading Council Mission

The Onslow – Lejeune Reading Council is a professional organization of individuals living or working in Onslow County and Camp Lejeune who are genuinely concerned with the improvement and advancement of reading. We are committed to supporting and improving reading and literacy programs throughout the community

What are the Dues?

Dues for the OLRC are $18.00. (Dues incentives: buy your intern a $12.00 membership – your dues are only $15.00. If you have 3 or more parents join at $12.00 – your dues are only $15.00). Of this total, $10.00 is sent to the North Carolina Reading Association (NCRA) www.ncreading.org; therefore joining the local council also gives you membership in the state council. In addition, you are encouraged to join the International Reading Association (IRA) www.reading.org that charters our local council. The IRA is an organization that exists for the purpose of reading!

What are the Benefits?

The benefits of joining Onslow-Lejeune Reading Council are numerous. OLRC provides:

- CEUs for attendance at meetings, workshops and/or OLRC sponsored events
- Increased number of student submissions in the NCRA Young Authors' Publication
- Educational strategies to use in your classroom or with your own children
- Informative and beneficial meetings
